In case of the indicators of the consolidated income statement the annualized actual data of the reporting quarter shall serve as the basis.

Explanations of ratios:

- Return on equity (ROE) – net profit to equity,
- Equity multiplier (EM) – total assets to total equity,
- Profit margin (PM) – net profit to total income,
- Asset utilisation (AU) – total income (incl. income from interest, service fees, dividends and other operating income) to total assets,

- Return on assets (ROA) – profit to total assets,
- SPREAD – ratio of interest expenses to interest-bearing liabilities deducted from the ratio of interest income to interest earning assets,
- TIER 1 own funds ratio (TIER 1 ratio) – ratio of TIER 1 funds to risk weighted assets.

* Starting from 2012, the bank forms statistical impairment allowances for loan receivables that are not individually significant and which do not have the characteristics of individual decrease in value. These receivables are grouped based on similar credit risk characteristics into rating classes, according to which the possible decrease of the value of the claims is estimated uniformly. Statistical impairment allowances are formed on the basis of previous loan damages and damage statistics in the extent of receivables that have probably arisen, but have not been reflected in accounting.

The reserve for impairment allowances for groups of homogenous receivables reflected in the balance as at 31 December 2011 has been included under statistical impairment allowance. If the reserve for impairment allowances for homogenous receivables of the comparable period would be involved under statistical impairment allowances as at 31 December 2011, the impairment allowance amount 33.230 would have been divided as follows: impairment allowances for loans 25.558, impairment allowances for interest receivables 4.811 and statistical impairment allowances 2.861.

Past due loans

As regards past due loans, it is important to note that the collection of non-performing consumer loans differs significantly from the recovery of loans that have physical security (i.e. mortgage-backed loans). Due to their nature, (as a rule, the loans are backed with the customer's regular income) claims related to terminated consumer loans are satisfied in smaller instalments over an extended period rather than in a lump sum raised through sale of the collateral.

Past due loan receivables comprise loan payments that are in arrears and any loan principal that has fallen due because of termination. Under the terms of its loan agreements, the Group may terminate an agreement unilaterally if at least three scheduled payments are in arrears. When an agreement is terminated, the customer has to settle any outstanding loan principal, any accrued interest, and any collateral claims resulting from the settlement delay.

Items past due for more than 90 days comprise overdue principal payments and the total amount of loan principal receivable under terminated agreements.

Impairment allowances

To mitigate the risks arising from settlement behaviour and to cover potential credit losses, the Group has established corresponding reserves, which as at 30 September 2012 totalled 37.2 million euros. Impairment allowances have been established on a conservative basis and they include:

- impairment allowances for loan receivables in the amount of 27.6 million euros;
- impairment allowances for interest receivables in the amount of 5.1 million euros;
- statistical impairment allowance in the amount of 3.8 million euros;
- impairment allowance for other customer receivables in the amount of 0.7 million euros.

If debt recovery proceedings do not yield expected results, the underlying receivable is written off the statement of financial position.

Liabilities

As at the end of the third quarter of 2012, the Group's liabilities amounted to 215.1 million euros. Most of the liabilities raised by the Group, i.e. 207.9 million euros (96.7%) consisted of customers' term deposits.
